GOD'S GRACE

The background of the image is a close-up, artistic photograph. On the right side, there is a glass filled with a thick, golden liquid, likely honey or oil, which is slightly out of focus. At the top right corner, a portion of a white, rounded object, possibly a ceramic or glass vessel, is visible. The overall lighting is soft and warm, creating a serene and elegant atmosphere.

The Manifold Grace of God

What Grace is...

- God's unmerited or unearned favor.
- A free gift you can do nothing to earn or deserve.
- God giving us what we don't deserve.
- God's divine empowerment.

What Grace isn't

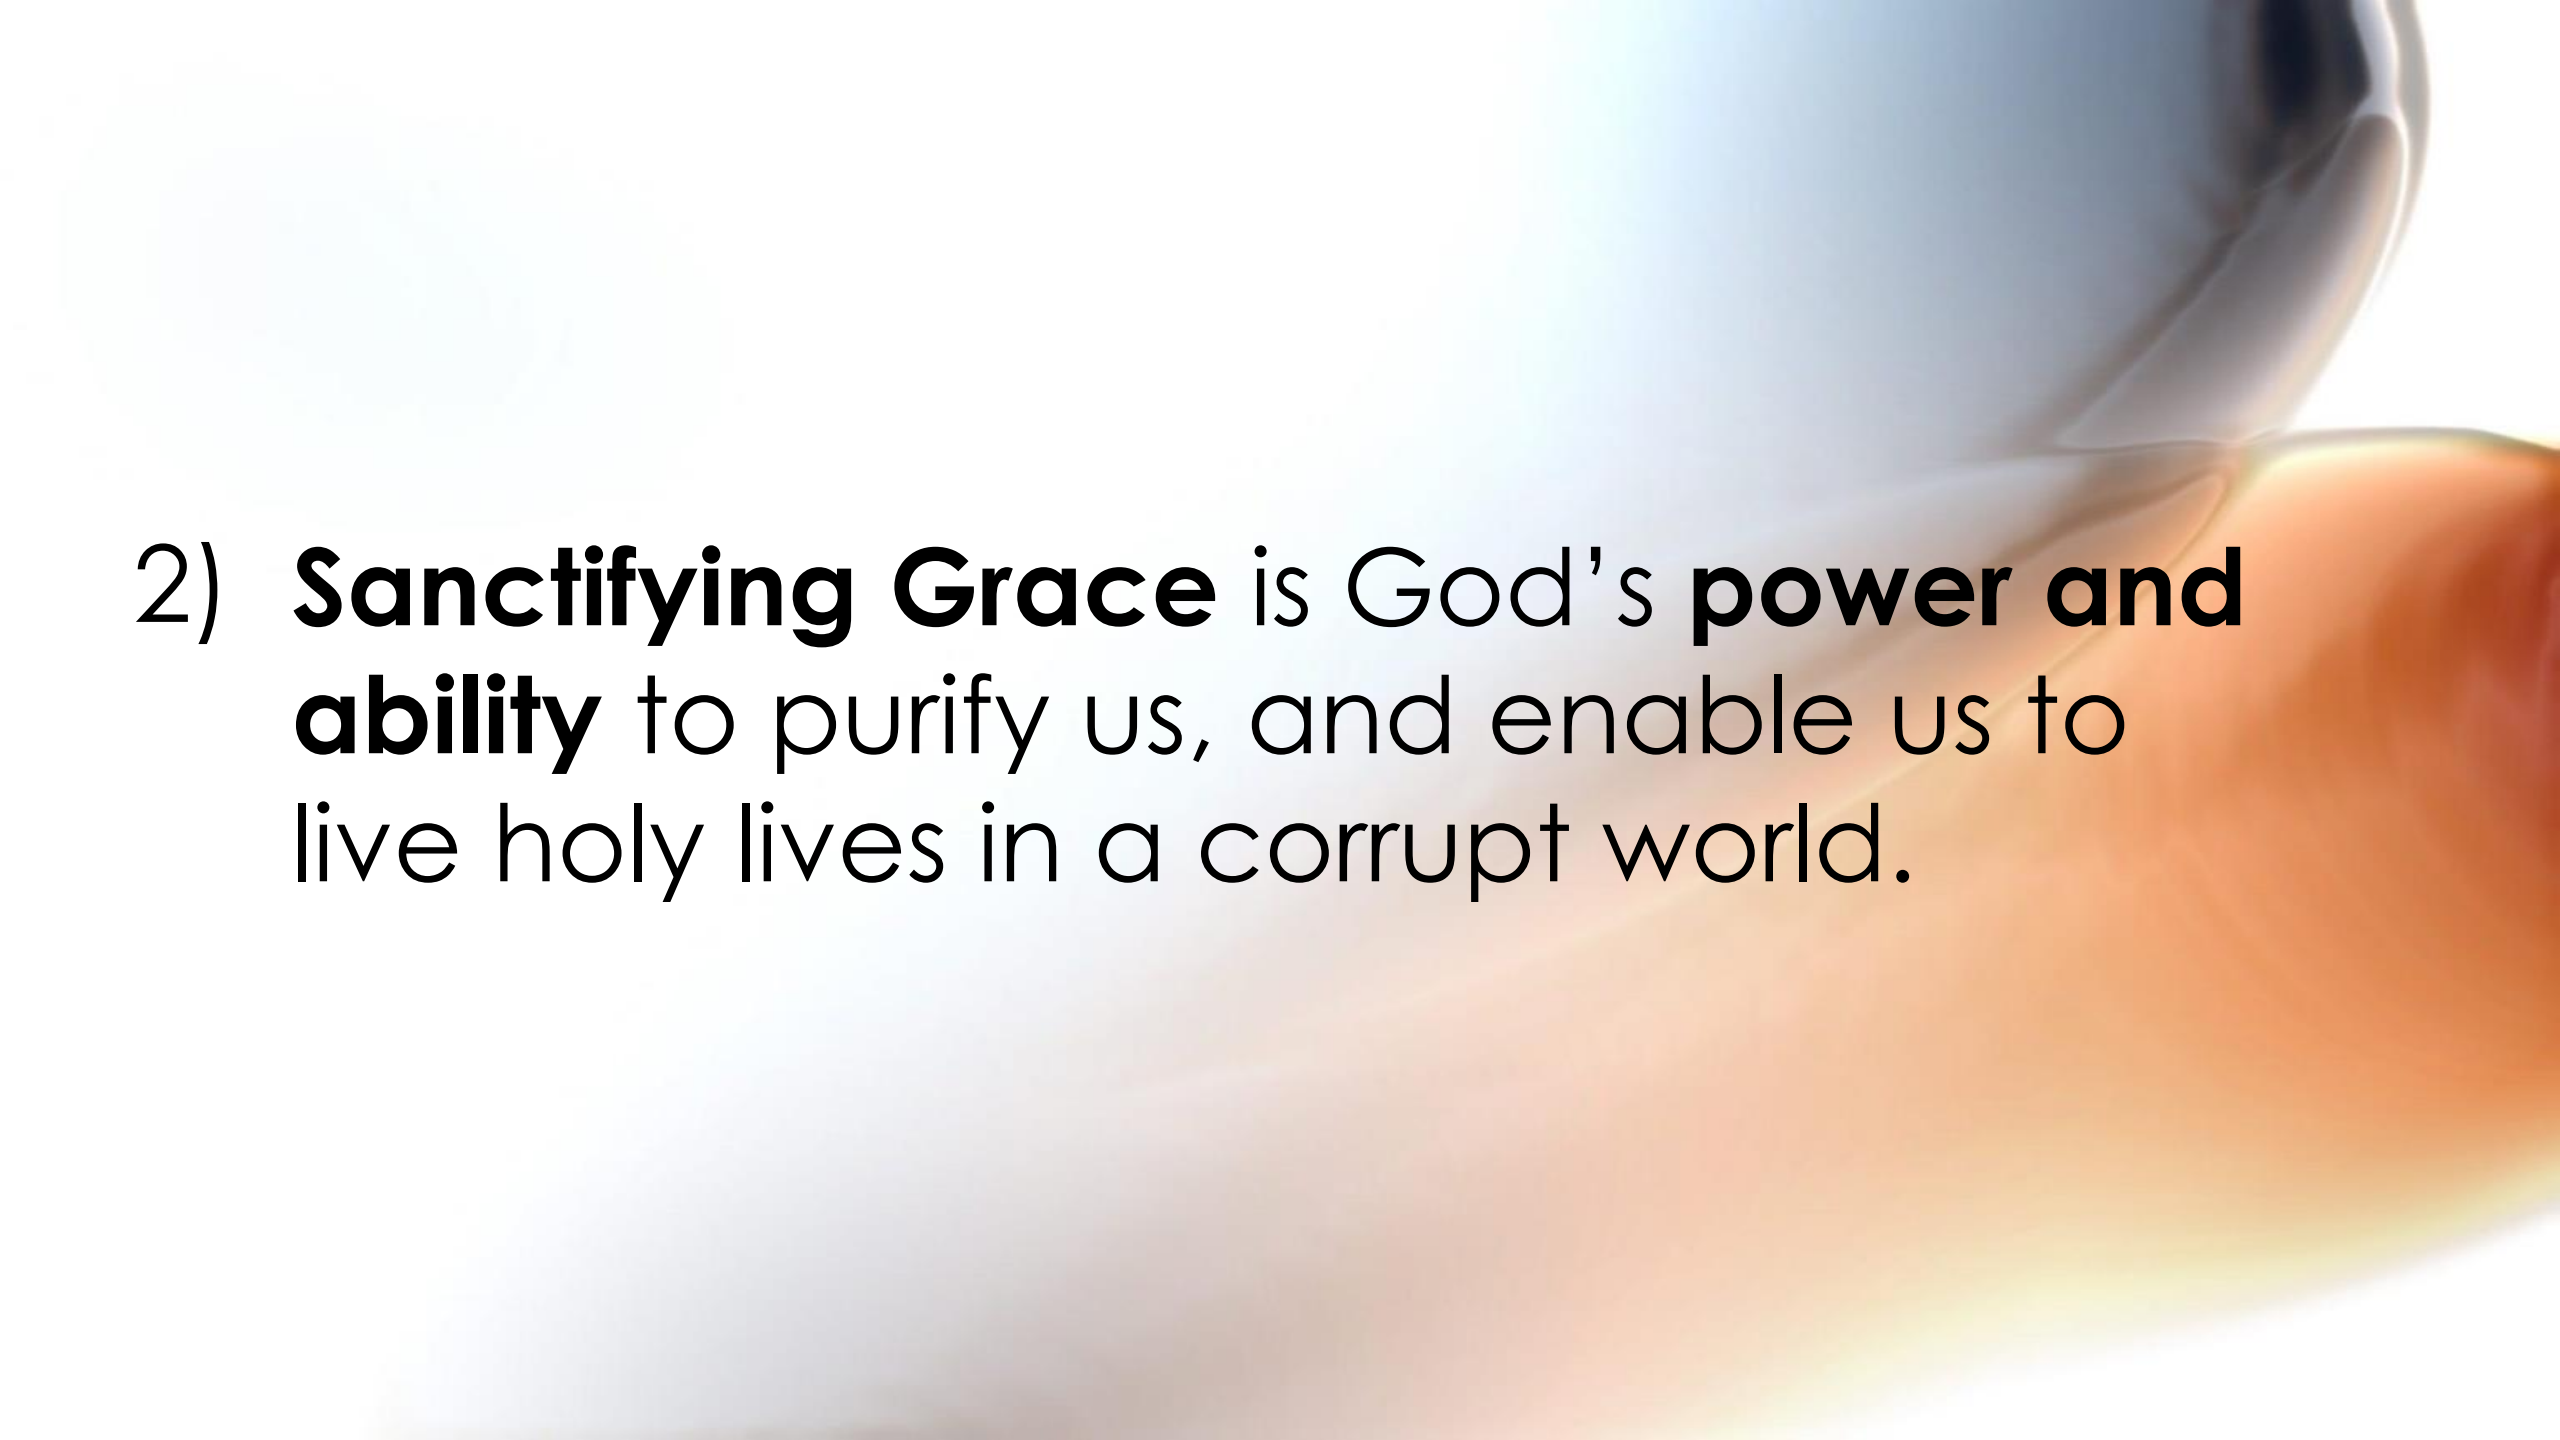

- The Grace of God isn't cheap.
- The Grace of God does not save us because of our performance.
- The Grace of God is not a cop-out from assuming responsibility or excuse to avoid spiritual disciplines.
- Grace does not imply the absence of challenge or effort.
